Laoshan Scenic Area

Day 3: Laoshan Scenic Area – Weihai

After breakfast, visit the Laoshan Scenic Area, a renowned Taoist mountain and one of China's few mountains where the sea meets the peaks. Along the way, view the famous Stone Old Man, a natural sea-eroded rock standing along the coast.

Explore the Bashuihe area, where mountains, waterfalls, and ocean views come together, offering the unique landscape that earned Laoshan the title “No.1 Mountain on the Sea.”

In the afternoon, travel to Weihai, enjoying scenic coastal views along the way as your seaside journey continues.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Remarks: After dinner, guests may optionally attend the famous Huaxia Legend Show at their own expense.

Day 4: Liugong Island History – Weihai Coastal Charm

In the morning, take a ferry to Liugong Island Scenic Area, once the base of the Qing Dynasty's Beiyang Fleet and an important site of the First Sino-Japanese War. Visit the museums and historical remains that recount China's modern naval history.

Besides its rich history, the island also offers beautiful coastal scenery with lush greenery and panoramic sea views.

After returning to the city, stroll through Xingfu Park and view Weihai's landmark Happiness Gate. Continue to Hanlefang Korean Cultural Street, where Korean-style architecture, shops, and food reflect Weihai's close cultural ties with Korea.

Day 5: Fairy-Tale Coast – Naxiang Sea – Mingshui Ancient Town

After breakfast, visit Jinshiwang Art Park, known for its golden rocky coastline and unique seaweed-roof cottages that create a charming seaside scene.

Stop by the famous “Blue Whale” Shipwreck, a striking coastal landmark where the abandoned ship rests along the shore, creating a dramatic and photogenic view against the waves.

Continue to Naxiang Sea Resort, home to the well-known Diamond Beach with its soft white sand and clear waters—perfect for a relaxing seaside stroll.

In the evening, arrive at Mingshui Ancient Town in Zhangqiu. Built during the Tang Dynasty, this historic town is famous for its spring water culture. As night falls, lantern-lit streets, flowing springs, and traditional workshops create a picturesque ancient atmosphere.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

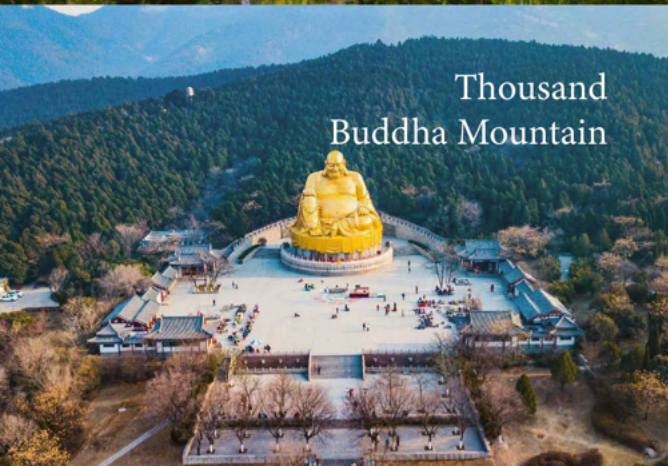

Day 6: Jinan – City of Springs

After breakfast, travel to Jinan, famously known as the “City of Springs.” Visit Baotu Spring, the renowned “No.1 Spring Under Heaven,” where three clear springs continuously bubble from underground.

Continue to Black Tiger Spring, where water flows from carved stone tiger mouths and locals often collect spring water for tea. Stroll around the scenic Daming Lake, where peaceful waters, pavilions, and greenery reflect the beauty of the city.

Explore Furong Street to enjoy local snacks and experience the lively atmosphere of Jinan’s historic old town. Finally, visit Thousand Buddha Mountain for panoramic views of the city.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
