Qingyan Ancient Town

Day 1: Singapore – Guiyang – Qingyan Ancient Town – Anshun

Fly from Singapore to Guiyang. Upon arrival, meet your guide and travel to Qingyan Ancient Town, a National 5A-rated heritage town dating back to the Ming Dynasty. Wander through its stone-paved streets lined with ancient residences, temples, and defensive walls that reflect centuries of history.

Visit the historic Scholar's Residence and explore the charming alleyways while sampling local Guizhou delicacies such as braised pork knuckles, tofu balls, and rose jelly. Afterwards, continue to Anshun for hotel check-in.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Anshun – Huangguoshu Waterfall – Xingyi

After breakfast, visit the spectacular Huangguoshu Waterfall Scenic Area, home to Asia's largest waterfall cluster and often referred to as "China's First Waterfall." Witness the majestic Huangguoshu Waterfall cascading from a height of 77 metres, creating a powerful misty spectacle.

Explore the scenic Tianxing Bridge area, famous for its karst caves, rivers, and natural stone formations. Continue to Doupotang Waterfall, known as the filming location for the classic Chinese series Journey to the West. After lunch, drive to Xingyi and check in to the hotel.

Day 3: Xingyi – Wanfenglin – Maling River Canyon – Tianlong Tunpu – Guiyang

After breakfast, visit Wanfenglin Scenic Area, known as the “Forest of Ten Thousand Peaks.” This spectacular karst landscape features thousands of cone-shaped limestone mountains stretching across the countryside, one of the most iconic natural wonders of Guizhou.

Continue to Maling River Canyon, often described as “the most beautiful scar on Earth.” Ride the scenic lift down to admire towering cliffs, cascading waterfalls, and lush greenery along the canyon walls.

Later, explore Tianlong Tunpu, a well-preserved Ming Dynasty fortress village where residents still maintain traditional Han culture, architecture, and customs. In the evening, return to Guiyang for hotel check-in.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, BBQ Dinner

Day 4: Guiyang – Xijiang Qianhu Miao Village

After breakfast, travel to Xijiang Qianhu Miao Village, the largest Miao ethnic village in the world. Perched along the mountainside, the village is famous for its thousands of wooden stilt houses built in layers across the hills.

Walk through the traditional village streets and discover the rich culture of the Miao people, including intricate embroidery, silver jewellery craftsmanship, and colourful traditional costumes. Enjoy panoramic views of the village and surrounding mountains.

Optional: Watch the Colorful Guizhou Show, a vibrant ethnic performance showcasing the traditions of Guizhou’s minority cultures.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Xiaoqikong Bridge

Day 5: Xijiang – Libo Xiaoqikong Scenic Area

After breakfast, drive to Libo Xiaoqikong Scenic Area, part of the UNESCO South China Karst World Natural Heritage Site. This breathtaking scenic area is famous for its emerald rivers, waterfalls, forests, and limestone formations.

Highlights include the historic Xiaoqikong Ancient Bridge, the crystal-clear Wolong Pond, the unique Water Forest, and the scenic 68-Level Waterfall, creating one of the most beautiful natural landscapes in China.

Optional: Enjoy a peaceful boat ride at Yuanyang Lake. Overnight in Libo.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Jiaxiu Pavilion

Libo Daqikong – Jiaxiu Pavilion – Guiyang – Singapore

After breakfast, visit Libo Daqikong Scenic Area, home to a massive natural stone arch often referred to as the “Oriental Arc de Triomphe.” This impressive natural bridge spans across the river and is surrounded by dramatic karst scenery.

After lunch, return to Guiyang and visit the iconic Jiaxiu Pavilion, a historic Ming Dynasty landmark built over the Nanming River and one of Guiyang’s most recognisable cultural symbols.

Transfer to the airport for your return flight to Singapore.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
